

Students Using Curriculum Content to Ensure Sustained Success

The Texas SUCCESS Initiative provides state-funded access to interactive mathematics and reading programs for Texas students in grades 3-8, Algebra I, and English I & II.

These computer-based programs meet students at their skill levels and, most importantly, encourage and enable progress and achievement as students move through the instructional activities. Additionally, these programs are scientifically validated and research-based, targeting student growth in mathematics and reading.

Visit www.texassuccess.org to sign up and learn more.