Regulation regarding exhausted funds in student's meal account.

1. After a student's meal account has insufficient or exhausted funds, a student will be allowed a grace period of 10 school days in which they may charge 10 additional school meals
2. Parents will be notified via MySchoolBucks, email and regular mail of low account funds and insufficient funds. Notification will include contact numbers for setting up a schedule of repayment.
3. Students will begin receiving alternative meals after exceeding 10 charged school meals, until a schedule for repayment has been set up with the Food Service Department.

No late fees or interest shall be charged in connection with the meals purchased with an exhausted account.
